

USDTZ Privacy Policy

May 1, 2020

This Privacy Policy governs your use of USDTZ and the USDTZ Services provided by Tezos Stable Technologies, Ltd., a British Virgin Islands corporation (together with its affiliates, the “Foundation,” “we,” or “us”). Collectively, “USDTZ Services” are defined as (a) minting USDTZ, (b) redeeming USDTZ, (c) sending and receiving USDTZ, and (d) receiving Harvest (as defined in the Foundation’s USDTZ User Agreement), if any, in connection with your ownership of USDTZ. This Privacy Policy (“Privacy Policy”) is designed to help you understand how we collect, use and share your personal information and to assist you in exercising the privacy rights available to you.

SCOPE

This Privacy Policy applies to personal information processed by us or our third party service providers (including Tokensoft), in our business, including on our website and other online or offline offerings as relevant to your use of the USDTZ Services. This Policy applies to our operating divisions, subsidiaries, affiliates, and branches.

I. PERSONAL INFORMATION WE COLLECT

Information You Provide to Us

Account Creation: When you create a Tokensoft Account as such term is defined in the User Agreement, Tokensoft will collect certain personal information including your name, email address, date of birth, residential address, username, password, and other information as may be reasonably necessary to comply with applicable law.

Your Communications with Us. We collect personal information from you such as email address, phone number, or mailing address when you request information about the USDTZ Services, request customer or technical support, apply for a job or otherwise communicate with us.

Surveys. We may contact you to participate in surveys. If you decide to participate, you may be asked to provide certain information which may include personal information.

Social Media Content. We may offer forums, blogs, or social media pages. Any content you provide on these channels will be considered “public” and is not subject to privacy protections.

Information Collected Automatically or From Others

Automatic Data Collection. We may collect certain information automatically when you use the USDTZ Services. This information may include your Internet protocol (IP) address, user settings, MAC address, cookie identifiers, mobile carrier, mobile advertising and other unique identifiers, details about your browser, operating system or device, location information, Internet service provider, pages that you visit before, during and after using the USDTZ Services, information about the links you click, and other information about how you use the USDTZ Services. Information we collect may be associated with accounts and other devices.

In addition, we may automatically collect data regarding your use of the USDTZ Services, such as the types of content you interact with and the frequency and duration of your activities. We may combine your information with information that other people provide when they use the USDTZ Services, including information about you when they tag you.

Cookies, Pixel Tags/Web Beacons, Analytics Information, and Interest-Based Advertising technologies. We, as well as third parties that provide content, advertising, or other functionality on the USDTZ Services, may use cookies, pixel tags, local storage, and other technologies (“Technologies”) to automatically collect information through the USDTZ Services. Technologies are essentially small data files placed on your computer, tablet, mobile phone, or other devices that allow us and our partners to record certain pieces of information whenever you visit or interact with the USDTZ Services.

- Cookies. Cookies are small text files placed in visitors’ computer browsers to store their preferences. Most browsers allow you to block and delete cookies. However, if you do that, the USDTZ Services may not work properly.
- Pixel Tags/Web Beacons. A pixel tag (also known as a web beacon) is a piece of code embedded in the USDTZ Services that collects information about users’ engagement on that web page. The use of a pixel allows us to record, for example, that a user has visited a particular web page or clicked on a particular advertisement.

Information from Other Sources. We may obtain information about you from other sources, including through third party services such as Tokensoft and organizations to supplement information provided by you. For example, if you access the USDTZ Services through a third-party application, such as an app store, a third-party login service, or a social networking site, we may collect information about you from that third-party application that you have made public via your privacy settings. Information we collect through these services may include your name, your user identification number, your user name, location, gender, birth date, email, profile picture, and your contacts stored in that service. This supplemental information allows us to verify information that you have provided to us and to enhance our ability to provide you with information about our business, products, and USDTZ Services, or as necessary to comply with applicable law.

II. HOW WE USE YOUR INFORMATION

We use your information for a variety of business purposes, including to:

Fulfil our contract with you and provide you with the USDTZ Services, such as:

- Managing your information and accounts;
- Providing access to certain areas, functionalities, and features of our USDTZ Services;
- Communicating with you about your account, activities on our USDTZ Services and policy changes;
- Undertaking activities to verify or maintain the quality or security of a service or device;
- Processing your financial information and other payment methods for products or USDTZ Services purchased;
- Providing analytics services;
- Processing applications and transactions; and
- Allowing you to register for events.

Analyze and improve the USDTZ Services pursuant to our legitimate interest, such as:

- Detecting security incidents, protecting against malicious, deceptive, fraudulent or illegal activity, and prosecuting those responsible for that activity;
- Measuring interest and engagement in the USDTZ Services and short-term, transient use, such as contextual customization of ads;

- Undertaking research for technological development and demonstration;
- Researching and developing products, services, marketing or security procedures to improve their performance, resilience, reliability or efficiency;
- Improving, upgrading or enhancing the USDTZ Services or device;
- Developing new products and the USDTZ Services;
- Ensuring internal quality control;
- Verifying your identity and preventing fraud;
- Debugging to identify and repair errors that impair existing intended functionality;
- Enforcing our terms and policies; and
- Complying with our legal obligations, protecting your vital interest, or as may be required for the public good.

Provide you with additional content and Services, such as:

- Furnishing you with customized materials about offers, products, and the USDTZ Services that may be of interest, including new content or services;
- Auditing relating to interactions, transactions and other compliance activities; and
- Other purposes you consent to, are notified of, or are disclosed when you provide personal information.

Automated profiling. We may use technologies considered automated decision making or profiling. We will not make automated decisions about you that would significantly affect you, unless such a decision is necessary as part of a contract we have with you, we have your consent, or we are permitted by law to use such technology. You may escalate any concerns you have by contacting us below.

Use De-identified and Aggregated Information. We may use personal information and other data about you to create de-identified and aggregated information, such as de-identified demographic information, de-identified location information, information about the computer or device from which you access the USDTZ Services, or other analyses we create.

Share Content with Friends or Colleagues. The USDTZ Services may offer various tools and functionalities. For example, we may allow you to provide information about your friends through our referral services. Our referral services may allow you to forward or share certain content with a friend or colleague, such as an email inviting your friend to use the USDTZ Services.

How We Use Automatic Collection Technologies. We, as well as third parties that provide content, advertising, or other functionality on the USDTZ Services, may use cookies, pixel tags, local storage, and other technologies to automatically collect information through the USDTZ Services. Our uses of these Technologies fall into the following general categories:

- Operationally Necessary. This includes Technologies that allow you access to the USDTZ Services, applications, and tools that are required to identify irregular site behavior, prevent fraudulent activity and improve security or that allow you to make use of our functionality;
- Performance Related. We may use Technologies to assess the performance of the USDTZ Services, including as part of our analytic practices to help us understand how our visitors use the USDTZ Services;
- Functionality Related. We may use Technologies that allow us to offer you enhanced functionality when accessing or using the USDTZ Services. This may include identifying you when you sign into the USDTZ Services or keeping track of your specified preferences, interests, or past items viewed;

- Advertising or Targeting Related. We may use first party or third-party Technologies to deliver content, including ads relevant to your interests, on the USDTZ Services or on third party sites.

Cross-Device Tracking. Your browsing activity may be tracked across different websites and different devices or apps. For example, we may attempt to match your browsing activity on your mobile device with your browsing activity on your laptop. To do this our technology partners may share data, such as your browsing patterns, geo-location and device identifiers, and will match the information of the browser and devices that appear to be used by the same person.

Notice Regarding Third Party Websites, Social Media Platforms and Software Development Kits. The USDTZ Services may contain links to other websites, and other websites may reference or link to our website or other Services. These other websites are not controlled by us. We encourage our users to read the privacy policies of each website and application with which they interact. We do not endorse, screen or approve and are not responsible for the privacy practices or content of such other websites or applications. Visiting these other websites or applications is at your own risk.

The USDTZ Services may include publicly accessible blogs, forums, social media pages, and private messaging features. By using such Services, you assume the risk that the personal information provided by you may be viewed and used by third parties for any number of purposes. In addition, social media buttons such as Facebook, Linked In, Google, etc. (that might include widgets such as the “share this” button or other interactive mini-programs) may be on our site. These features may collect your IP address, which page you are visiting on our site, and may set a cookie to enable the feature to function properly. These social media features are either hosted by a third party or hosted directly on our site. Your interactions with these features apart from your visit to our site are governed by the privacy policy of the company providing it.

We may use third party APIs and software development kits (“SDKs”) as part of the functionality of the USDTZ Services. APIs and SDKs may allow third parties including analytics and advertising partners to collect your personal information for various purposes including to provide analytics services and content that is more relevant to you. For more information about our use of APIs and SDKs, please contact us as set forth below.

III. DISCLOSING YOUR INFORMATION TO THIRD PARTIES

We may share your personal information with the following categories of third parties:

Service Providers. We may share any personal information we collect about you with our third- party service providers. The categories of service providers (processors) to whom we entrust personal information include: IT and related services; information and services; payment processors; customer service providers; and vendors to support the provision of the USDTZ Services.

Business Partners. We may provide personal information to business partners with whom we jointly offer products or services. In such cases, our business partner’s name will appear along with ours.

Affiliates. We may share personal information with our affiliated companies.

Disclosures to Protect Us or Others. We may access, preserve, and disclose any information we store associated with you to external parties if we, in good faith, believe doing so is required or appropriate to: comply with law enforcement or national security requests and legal process, such as a court order or subpoena; protect your, our or others’ rights, property, or safety; enforce our policies or contracts; collect amounts owed to us; or assist with an investigation or prosecution of suspected or actual illegal activity.

Disclosure in the Event of Merger, Sale, or Other Asset Transfers. If we are involved in a merger, acquisition, financing due diligence, reorganization, bankruptcy, receivership, purchase or sale of assets, or transition of service to another provider, then your information may be sold or transferred as part of such a transaction, as permitted by law and/or contract.

You acknowledge that all information processed by us may be transferred, processed, and stored anywhere in the world, including but not limited to, the United States or other countries, which may have data protection laws that are different from the laws where you live. We have taken appropriate safeguards to require that your personal information will remain protected and require our third-party service providers and partners to have appropriate safeguards as well. Further details can be provided upon request.

IV. YOUR CHOICES

General

You have certain choices about your personal information. Where you have consented to the processing of your personal information, you may withdraw that consent at any time and prevent further processing by contacting us as described below. Even if you opt out, we may still collect and use non- personal information regarding your activities on the USDTZ Services and for other legal purposes as described above.

Email and Telephone Communications

If you receive an unwanted email from us, you can use the unsubscribe link found at the bottom of the email to opt out of receiving future emails. Note that you will continue to receive transaction-related emails regarding products or Services you have requested. We may also send you certain non-promotional communications regarding us and the USDTZ Services, and you will not be able to opt out of those communications (e.g., communications regarding the USDTZ Services or updates to our Terms or this Privacy Policy).

We process requests to be placed on do-not-mail, do-not-phone and do-not-contact lists as required by applicable law.

Mobile Devices

We may send you push notifications through our mobile application. You may at any time opt- out from receiving these types of communications by changing the settings on your mobile device. We may also collect location-based information if you use our mobile applications. You may opt-out of this collection by changing the settings on your mobile device.

“Do Not Track.”

Do Not Track (“DNT”) is a privacy preference that users can set in certain web browsers. Please note that we do not respond to or honor DNT signals or similar mechanisms transmitted by web browsers.

Cookies and Interest-Based Advertising

You may stop or restrict the placement of Technologies on your device or remove them by adjusting your preferences as your browser or device permits. The online advertising industry also provides websites from which you may opt out of receiving targeted ads from data partners and other advertising partners that participate in self-regulatory programs. You can access these and learn more about targeted advertising and consumer choice and privacy, at www.networkadvertising.org/managing/opt_out.asp, <http://www.youronlinechoices.eu/>, <https://youradchoices.ca/choices/>, and www.aboutads.info/choices/. To separately make choices for mobile apps on a mobile device, you can download DAA's AppChoices application from your device's app store. Alternatively, for some devices you may use your device's platform controls in your settings to exercise choice.

Please note you must separately opt out in each browser and on each device. Advertisements on third party websites that contain the AdChoices link may have been directed to you based on information collected by advertising partners over time and across websites. These advertisements provide a mechanism to opt out of the advertising partners' use of this information for interest-based advertising purposes.

Your Privacy Rights

In accordance with applicable law, you may have the right to:

Access to/Portability of Personal Data. about you consistent with legal requirements. In addition, you may have the right in some cases to receive or have your electronic Personal Data transferred to another party.

Request correction. of your personal information where it is inaccurate or incomplete. In some cases, we may provide self-service tools that enable you to update your personal information or we may refer you to the controller of your personal information who is able to make the correction.

Request deletion. of your personal information, subject to certain exceptions prescribed by law.

Request restriction of or object to processing of your personal information, including the right to opt in or opt out of the sale of your Personal Data to third parties, if applicable, where such requests are permitted by law.

If you would like to exercise any of these rights, please log into your account or contact us as set forth below. We will process such requests in accordance with applicable laws. To protect your privacy, we will take steps to verify your identity before fulfilling your request. For more information on your specific rights under the California Consumer Privacy Act ("CCPA"), see below.

V. DATA RETENTION

We store the personal information we receive as described in this Privacy Policy for as long as you use the USDTZ Services or as necessary to fulfill the purpose(s) for which it was collected, provide the USDTZ Services, resolve disputes, establish legal defenses, conduct audits, pursue legitimate business purposes, enforce our agreements, and comply with applicable laws.

VI. SECURITY OF YOUR INFORMATION

We take steps to ensure that your information is treated securely and in accordance with this Privacy Policy. Unfortunately, no system is 100% secure, and we cannot ensure or warrant the security of any information you provide to us. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, we do not accept liability for unintentional disclosure.

By using the USDTZ Services or providing personal information to us, you agree that we may communicate with you electronically regarding security, privacy, and administrative issues relating to your use of the USDTZ Services. If we learn of a security system's breach, we may attempt to notify you electronically by posting a notice on the USDTZ Services, by mail or by sending an e-mail to you.

VII. CHILDREN'S INFORMATION

The USDTZ Services are not directed to children under 13 (or other age as required by local law), and we do not knowingly collect personal information from children. If you learn that your child has provided us with personal information without your consent, you may contact us as set forth below. If we learn that we have collected any personal information in violation of applicable law, we will promptly take steps to delete such information and terminate the child's account.

VIII. SUPERVISORY AUTHORITY

If you are located in the European Economic Area or the UK, you have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority if you believe our processing of your personal information violates applicable law.

IX. CHANGES TO OUR PRIVACY POLICY

We may revise this Privacy Policy from time to time in our sole discretion. If there are any material changes to this Privacy Policy, we will notify you as required by applicable law. You understand and agree that you will be deemed to have accepted the updated Privacy Policy if you continue to use the USDTZ Services after the new Privacy Policy takes effect.
